F-105D 624226 563 TFS 23 TFW McConnell Operational loss during an RTU radar training mission. Crashed 10 NM SW of Raymond, Kansas. 38-17N 98-25W 2Lt Frank F. Perry III 563 TFS RTU student pilot ejected but died. Call sign: "Spike 04". "An F-105D jet from McConnell Air Force Base at Wichita crashed Friday afternoon about 20 miles southeast of here, killing its pilot. Dead is 2nd Lt. Frank F. Perry III, 24. ... He was assigned to the 563rd Tactical Fighter Squadron at McConnell. Perry was on a radar training mission in the single seat jet when the crash occurred. Delmar Manning, ... one of four men working on an oil pumping unit less than a mile from the crash site, said the Thunderchief 'just went straight down and into the ground.' He said the supersonic jet was flying on a low straight plane and that black smoke poured from it before the crash. Jim Keevert ... said Perry apparently had ejected. 'He was still on fire when I got there. His body was about 100 yards from the plane near his ejection seat. ... 'The pilot evidently never contacted anyone or indicated he was in trouble,' Barton County Sheriff Marion Weese said. 'He just went into a spin and that was that.' "

History of Flight

"On 8 March 1968, 2d Lt Frank F. Perry, assigned to the 563 TFS, McConnell AFB, Kansas, was flying GAR-2, his second ground attack radar mission in the F-105. The mission was to fly a radar low level route at 1,500 feet AGL with practice nuclear weapons deliveries on Smoky Hill Gunnery Range. The flight line-up consisted of: #1 Captain William M. Kurtz, an F-105 instructor pilot; #2 - 2d Lt Harvey. A. Marshall; #3 - Captain Kenneth G. Lindell; #4 - 2nd Lt Frank F. Perry. (All in the 563d TFS). The call sign for the flight was Spike. The aircraft were configured with two 450-gallon external fuel tanks, bomb bay fuel tank, one SUU-21A practice bomb dispenser, and two LAU-59A rocket pods. Lt Perry was assigned aircraft number 62-4226, an F-105D. The briefing started two hours prior to scheduled takeoff time. The weather was clear for the entire route which covered northeastern and central Kansas. A TAC form 175 was filed for the mission.

"The first two legs of the navigation route, McConnell Low Level Radar #13, were flown as briefed with the exception that number two, leading the first element, had difficulties flying his preplanned route. This resulted in the first element overflying the second turn point by approximately 15nm. When number two turned to the heading for the third leg, it placed the first element parallel to the course, approximately 15 nm to the right of the course line. The second element, which originally had 30-second spacing behind the lead element, turned at the proper point. This resulted in the second element turning inside the first element, giving them approximately a 20 nm lead. Upon completion of the Navigation course, the second element orbited south of the termination point in a left turn until Spike 3 visually acquired the first element. At his point number two noted the time to be 1450. Lt Perry was last seen by Capt Kurtz flying a fighting wing position on number three. Number three then made approximately a 180-degree climbing left turn to join on lead's right wing. At the turn's completion, #3 rolled out 3 to 4 miles in trail with lead. A channel change was then made which number four did not acknowledge. After several attempts to regain radio and/or visual contact with Lt Perry failed, Capt Kurtz requested the Smoky Hill Range officer to notify McConnell TAC Command Post that Spike 4 would probably be returning shortly with a possible radio failure. Spike 1, 2, and 3 continued the briefed mission and then returned to McConnell and landed."

At 2125Z, an HH-43B rescue helicopter from McConnell responded to the crash but returned to McConnell. The helicopter crew recorded two sorties and 1.7 flying hours. The nineteenth F-105 RTU Class 68IR graduated at the 23 TFW, McConnell AFB KS. The class started on 5 Dec 67 with 27 students. Twenty six graduated. The incoming class consisted of 2 Capts and 25 2nd Lts, all recent graduates in the top 10% of the Undergraduate Pilot Training program.

F-105 History

"This class is unique in that it is the first class in which all members are recent graduates of the Undergraduate Pilot Training Program. ... They have no pilot experience other than that received in pilot training. This represented a marked contrast with previous F-105 RTU classes composed of older, more mature and experienced pilots."

To compensate for their inexperience, their course was increased from 92 to 120 flying hours for a total of 78 sorties (RTU course 1111106). On 8 Mar 68, student 2Lt Frank F. Perry III was killed in the crash of F-105D 62-4226 near Raymond KS.

The class deployed for conventional weapons delivery training to George AFB CA between 16 Apr - 9 May 68 with the 563 TFS. The squadron commander was Lt Col Joe W. Pickett. Capt Wyrewood Gowell was Top Student.

On 30 Apr 1968, while at George AFB, instructor pilot Maj Robert V. "Boris" Baird, ejected successfully from F-105D 61-0083 when it developed a flight control problem after takeoff.

The 10 May 1968 edition of The Wichita Eagle reported on the 563 TFS's return to McConnell after their deployment to George. "The 563rd Tactical Fighter Squadron at McConnell Air Force Base returned to Wichita Thursday after 23 days at George AFB, Calif. where it achieved a record 725 successful practice sorties.

"The student fighter squadrons at McConnell are sent to George for special aerial combat training as a routine but this was the first group of F-105 students to contain all recently commissioned second lieutenants.

"None of them are experienced pilots, but they are a good group,' said Maj. Robert B. Baird, flight commander. 'I experienced the only mishap during the 23-day exercise.' Baird was forced to eject from his craft April 30 when it developed flight control difficulty shortly after takeoff from George.

"McConnell is the training center for pilots in the F-105 Thunderchief fighter-bomber prior to assignment in Southeast Asia. Most students up to now had been experienced pilots who were converting from other aircraft to the 105, Baird said.

"This group of students had logged about 90 hours flying time in the Thunderchief during their training here before going to George where they flew about another 20 hours each.' Baird said. 'They will be required to complete about 10 additional hours flight time here, but they already have overseas orders for mid-June.'

"Most practice flights are over Smokey Hill Bombing and Gunnery Range near Salina, Kan.

"But when it comes time to fire on airborne targets, Kansas lacks sufficient air space.' Maj. Baird explained, so the squadron retreats to skies over the southern California desert. There they concentrate efforts on air-to-air combat practice and use of the Sidewinder missile.

"After graduation from flight training, the 26 class members will begin water survival training at Homestead AFB, Fla., before going overseas."

The students were:

469 TFS OPERATIONS OVERVIEW, JULY - SEPTEMBER 1968

"During the period between July 1 and Sept. 30, 1968, the 'World's Finest' flew 1,555 missions against targets in Laos and North Vietnam, flying a total of 3,759 combat hours. The squadron now has a total of 38,796 combat hours and 15,989 combat sorties in the theater.

"Continued bombing restrictions limited activity during this period to operations in Route Package One in North Vietnam and certain areas of Laos. Our main objective during the period as directed by 7th AF was the interdiction of vital lines of communications in Route Pack 1. Under the direction of Lt. Col. Victor R. Hollandsworth, the 469th maintained an outstanding record of superior mission accomplishment.

"This reporting period was accented by the arrival of the first group of new Undergraduate Pilot Training graduates to fly with the 469th Tactical Fighter Squadron in well over a year. The majority of the group were 1st Lieutenants, and although they did not possess extensive flying hours or experience, the quality of their performance left little doubt as to their desire and abilities. They have proven themselves extremely capable as tactical fighter pilots.

"On Aug. 10, 1968, Capt. Peter K. Foley completed his second 100 missions over North Vietnam. In his flight were three other 469th pilots completing their 100th mission, which made it the first 500 mission flight in the history of air operations against North Vietnam. In Capt. Foley's flight were Maj. Bryant Heston, Maj. Ford H. Smart and Capt. Christopher H. Brown. Other 469th pilots completing their 100th missions during the period were Majors James J. Mizner and Donald J. Sisk, Captains William O. Harris III, Nobe R. Koontz, Ronald R. Myers, Harold E. Murk, Thomas H. Platt, Robert L. Riedenauer and David M. Roeder.

"In August and again in September, tragedy struck two members of the 469th. On Aug. 17, 1968, [a pilot] was killed in a freak landing accident at Da Nang Air Force Base in South Vietnam. On Sept. 19, 1968, [a Major] was shot down during a rocket delivery pass just north of the DMZ in North Vietnam. He ejected successfully from his disabled F-105 but was taken captive shortly after. ... Our sympathies go out to these men and to their families.

"The 469th Tactical Fighter Squadron will become an F-4E squadron on November 1968. Present members of the squadron will join the 34th Tactical Fighter Squadron here at Korat [RTAFB, Thailand] and some will transfer to the 355th Tactical Fighter Wing at Takhli. This conversion will mark both the end and beginning of one of the most significant chapters in the history of aerial warfare. The record of the F-105s of the 469th Tactical Fighter Squadron stands by itself. We are confident the new members of the 469th will carry on the outstanding accomplishments of the 469th in the months ahead."

As of 30 September 1968, the 469th had assigned 28 line pilots, two staff pilots, and five attached pilots. The pilots averaged 350.4 flying hours in the F-105. The pilots and their sortie counts were:

Under "Project 191" and TAC OPLAN 47 BUCK 9, the 469 TFS, 388 TFW, Korat RTAFB, Thailand, received 20 F-4Es and aircrews from the 40 TFS, 33 TFW, Eglin AFB, FL ending the squadron's 2 1/2 years of F-105 operations at Korat. Twenty-two F-4Es had left Eglin on 13 November 1968 non-stop with six refuelings en route. "Aircraft 21 and 22 were airborne spares to Hawaii and ground spares for the second leg to Guam. One of the airborne spares aborted into George AFB, Calif., when his centerline tank would not take fuel on the third refueling."

Aviation artist Keith Ferris flew in the rear cockpit of one of the F-4Es all the way to Korat. He had been commissioned to paint pictures for the Air Force art program.

"The aircraft were held 24 hours at Hickam AFB, Hawaii, due to heavy rain showers, which caused the tankers to exceed their takeoff/abort requirements. The first cell had started when the word came to abort and hold for 24 hours."

These were the first F-4Es deployed to SEA and this was the first time in its history the 388 TFW flew more than one type of aircraft. The F-4Es sported shark's mouths painted on their fuselages behind the gun.

The 388th Wing Commander, Col Paul P. Douglas, Jr., adopted F-4E 67-0288 as his own and had eight swastikas painted on the fuselage and his "Arkansas Traveler" emblem on the left intake. These were similar to the markings of his P-47D Thunderbolt that he named "The Arkansas Traveler", in which he shot down eight German planes during World War II, and to the markings he had applied to F-105D 59-1743, after he arrived at Korat on 24 January 1968. ("McDonnell F-4 Phantom, Spirit in the Skys", pgs 42 - 43.)

The F-4E's arrival at Korat was marked by an "... outstanding reception which was highlighted by a big parade, smoke bombs, a refreshing dip in the pool, and an open bar. ... Maj Gen Royal N. Baker, 7 AF, and Maj Gen Kenneth C. Dempster, Vice Chief, 13 Air Force, helped welcome the squadron ... ."

"F-4Es were used in the same manner as the strike F-105 (D-model)." F-4Es were capable of carrying a greater ordnance load than the F-105Ds they replaced (eleven vs. six 750-lb bombs). The F-4E allowed an interval bomb release while the F-105 had a less versatile bomb selection capability.

"There were some initial problems involved in bringing the F-4E squadron into the wing. One problem was the deploying of an enhanced squadron, having a self-contained maintenance capability, to a consolidated wing which gathers all personnel into functional squadrons regardless of the specialist's AFSC. Aircraft specialists, such as the 322X1Q, F-4E radar technician, still had to be identified in a consolidated maintenance squadron.

"Also, the F-4E had no documentation camera installed. There was a KB-18 system for bombing evaluation, but no gunsight camera. The War Ready Supply Kit (WRSK) as supplied by the parent wing (33 TFW) was incomplete, missing 31 critical items. ... It was estimated that the WRSK arrived 97 percent complete."

The last commander of the 469 TFS with F-105s was Lt Col James H. Broussard. He was replaced on 18 November by Lt Col Edward Hillding who arrived with the F-4Es. After this conversion, the 388 TFW had two F-105 squadrons -- the 34 TFS (24 F-105Ds) and 44 TFS (16 F-105Fs and 5 F-105Ds).

Maj George C. Avila, Jr. was "... the last Thud pilot in the 469th...held over to set up the life support shop for the Es." (Keith Ferris, e-mail 15 Jan 2013). Maj Avila last flew the F-105 on 1 January 1969 by which time he had accumulated 433 hours in the airplane. ( F-105 Pilot Flying Hour report dated 18 Nov 85 provided by the USAF Safety Center to Bauke Jan Douma.)

Capt Richard E. Tracey, 1Lt Robert E. Bryan, Capt Kenneth G. Lindell, 1Lt John W. Crotty, Maj Paul F. Swanson, 1Lt Marshall D. Tilley were some of the 469 TFS pilots who transferred to the 34 TFS.

The 40 TFS designation returned to the 33 TFW at Eglin to be rebuilt as another F-4E squadron, which equipped the

The runway at Korat RTAFB was closed for repairs. During the last months of 1968, "preliminary surveys showed [the need for] replacement for approximately 64 top slabs of the eight-inch overlay, replacement for some 50 bottom slabs, repair of 220 slabs with broken corners, repair of some 500 spalled (chipped) areas on the runway and probable repair to some of the foundation structure." Significant runway deterioration had been noticed since March 1966. Some of the runway concrete "was initially laid down during the Imperial Japanese forces occupation in World War II."

Fighter squadrons of the 388 TFW deployed to and operated from two other bases during the period. Forty-four F-105s and 1,068 personnel of the 34 TFS and 44 TFS operated from Takhli RTAFB, Thailand, while the F-4Es of the 469 TFS deployed to Ubon RTAFB, Thailand. The 388 TFW retained operational control over their deployed squadrons and maintained their level of combat sorties from the deployed locations. The 388 TFW's F-105s "enjoyed a higher mission effectiveness" while TDY to Takhli. The F-105s flew 901 sorties, of which 848 were combat missions with an operationally ready rate of 78.4 percent.

Lt Col Jack Sherrill was the commander of the 44 TFS when the squadron operated from Takhli. "Excellent flight line facilities but hooches and O Club were not nearly up to par as Korat. Such perks assumed more importance than justified when we were no longer 'at war' after the Nov 1 halt."

The 56 pilots and EWOs from the 44 TFS who flew from Takhli included Maj William H. Talley, Maj Ronald L. Shepard, Lt Col Richard A. "Dick" Haggren, Maj Richard P. Cisco, Capt Thomas P. Doubek, Maj Thomas J. Phelan, Jr., EWO Maj Robert G. Denison.

Thirty-four pilots from the 34 TFS deployed to Takhli. They were: Lt Col Harvey W. Prosser, Jr., Lt Col Isaac M. Glass, Maj David J. Carroll, Maj Paul F. Swanson, Maj Manford C. Holly, Jr, Maj Sheldon H. Cooper, Maj Harold Kahler, Maj William R. McDaniel, Maj Guy E. Pulliam, Capt Oral L. Bell, Capt James V. Barr, Capt Darrell J. Ahrens, Capt Robert M. Howard, Jr., Capt Richard E. Tracey, Capt Ralph E. Durnbaugh, Capt Douglas R. Young, Capt Kenneth G. Lindell, Capt Charles J. Ferrari, Capt Clayton B. Lyle III, Capt Eugene G. Lamothe, Capt John F. Schell, Capt Eben D. Jones, 1Lt David S. Hartman, Jr., 1Lt Ronald A. Hoffmeyer, 1Lt Marshall D. Tilley, 1Lt Ronald D. Stafford, 1Lt Robert E. Bryan, 1Lt Robert J. Zukowski, 1Lt David T. Dinan, 1Lt John W. Crotty, 1Lt Alan B. Reiter, 1Lt Daniel P. Seals, 1Lt Joseph W. Widhalm, and 1Lt Edward L. Sykes,

The runway repairs at Korat required 2,416 cubic meters of concrete and was done under contract to Gerson and Sons from Bangkok who employed 600 Thai workers. The work was completed on time despite a 100-percent increase in the amount of repair required.

After earning an MS in Systems Engineering from AFIT, Maj Schwartz was reassigned to Korat. "The USAF asked if I would like to return to SEA for another F-105G tour. I knew it would be my last flying job so I said yes and went to Nellis for a quicky 105 requal.... I did not fly for two years while in AFIT and had to be jet qualified when I showed up at Nellis so I got a two-ride Tbird checkout at WP and off to Nellis. My first ride there was in an F model and then on to a two ship D flight with an instructor in the other D. After takeoff as we started to make a practice approach to McCaren my flaps started to split when I lowered them. I quickly stopped flap movement and was able to retract the one that did go down. Now I had to return to Nellis with a 225 knot final and with only two Tbird rides in two years. Anyway, I was able to put the Thud down on the end of the runway and wait until I had good chute opening speed. Between the chute and brakes I stopped ok and exited the runway with hot brakes. The syllabus was a very short one and then off to SEA and Korat where the war had come to a halt."
